

Revanth Pays tribute to Basaveshwara

slams KCR for 'Neglecting public duties'

HYDERABAD, APRIL 30 (TSIT BUREAU): In the birth anniversary of 12th-century social reformer Mahatma Basaveshwara, Telangana Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy reaffirmed his government's commitment to equality, justice, and grassroots development. Speaking at a public event in Hyderabad, he lauded Basaveshwara as a revolutionary who inspired democratic and social reforms, noting that releasing Class 10 results on this day was a symbolic step reflecting these values. Drawing a parallel with the Congress party's legacy, Reddy credited Basavanna's vision for influencing the Panchayat Raj system, aimed at empowering local governance. The CM criticized the opposition for spreading "hatred and misinformation" instead of playing a constructive democratic role. Targeting BRS leader K. Chandrashekar Rao (KCR), Reddy accused him of drawing Rs. 65 lakh in salary and benefits as Leader of the Opposition while staying secluded in his farmhouse. Refuting claims that welfare schemes were halted, Reddy said, "We haven't stopped Rythu Bandhu, Aarogyasri, Shaadi Mubarak, or free electricity. We've added free RTC bus travel for women and youth employment opportunities." He invited KCR for a public debate on major issues like Kaleshwaram, job creation, caste census, and loan waivers, asserting that "people can see through the lies."

Reddy concluded by reaffirming his government's mission: "We are increasing revenue not for power, but to uplift the poor. The people of Telangana are our true brand ambassadors."

Govt to Include Caste Enumeration in Upcoming Census: Kishan Reddy

Hyderabad, April 30, 2025: Union Minister G Kishan Reddy on Tuesday announced that the Cabinet Committee on Political Affairs, under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, has decided to include caste enumeration in the forthcoming national Census.

Speaking to the media, Reddy emphasized that the decision was not taken abruptly but followed extensive internal discussions. He recalled that Union Home Minister Amit Shah had already indicated in September 2024 that the matter would be addressed at the time of the Census announcement.

Reddy strongly criticized the Congress Party and its INDI alliance partners, accusing them of using the issue of caste census as a political weapon rather than for genuine social justice or administrative reform. He cited the example of the Socio Economic Caste Census (SECC) of 2011, conducted by the then Congress-led government, which he termed a "failure" due to poor planning and execution. According to Reddy, the SECC recorded an exaggerated 46 lakh castes and over 8.19 crore data errors, leading to its results never being officially released.

He pointed out that although decadal censuses prior to independence — from 1881 to 1931 — included caste enumeration, the Congress government post-1951 discontinued the practice and consistently opposed its inclusion thereafter. Even though a Group of Ministers was formed in 2010 under then Prime Minister Dr. Manmohan Singh to consider the issue, the Congress ultimately opted for a survey instead of a full census under the Census Act.

Reddy reaffirmed that Census is a Union subject under Article 246 and Entry 69 of the Seventh Schedule of the Constitution. While some states have attempted caste surveys under the Collection of Statistics Act, 2008, he claimed many of these lacked transparency and credibility. "The inclusion of caste enumeration in the official Census will ensure data integrity, avoid political manipulation, and contribute to strengthening the nation's social and economic framework," Reddy said, adding that the decision reflects the Modi government's commitment to inclusive development, just as it had done while implementing the 10% reservation for the economically weaker sections.

"Bengal Was the Guiding Light Then, Telangana Is Today": Minister Konda Surekha

Hyderabad: Telangana Forest, Environment, and Endowments Minister Konda Surekha stated that while Bengal was once the guiding light of the nation, today it is Telangana that plays that role. She emphasized that it was due to the persistent pressure from the socially-conscious Telangana government that the Centre agreed to conduct a caste census.

Calling this a realization of Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's vision, she credited the efforts of Telangana leadership for this breakthrough. "Social justice is possible only with the Congress," she asserted. As a BC (Backward Classes) woman and minister, Surekha expressed immense happiness over the Centre's decision.

Addressing the media on Wednesday, the minister termed the Centre's announcement to include caste-based enumeration in the nationwide census as a significant success for Telangana. She recalled Rahul Gandhi's demand for a caste census across the country during his Bharat Jodo Yatra, aimed at eliminating social and caste inequalities.

She also highlighted that based on the caste survey conducted in Telangana, the state government enacted a law providing 42% reservations for BCs in politics, education, and employment. The Centre's move to incorporate caste data in the upcoming census, inspired by Telangana's initiative, is a welcome and revolutionary step, she said. Minister Surekha expressed hope that this would help eradicate social inequalities and ensure justice for all.
