

NARAYANA SCHOOLS SECURES 99 GLOBAL AWARDS IN 2024-25 NSS SPACE COMPETITIONS, CELEBRATING 13 STRAIGHT YEARS OF VICTORY

Narayana Schools have once again made history by achieving extraordinary success in the 2024-25 National Space Society (NSS) competitions, securing 99 awards, the highest in India, out of 169 projects awarded to various schools across the country. This marks the 13th consecutive year where Narayana has dominated these global contests, a feat unmatched by any other school worldwide. The outstanding performance highlights the exceptional creativity and scientific acumen of students and focused mentoring & support offered by the staff at Narayana Schools. The competitions included three major contests: the NSS Roadmap to Space Art Contest, the Live in a Healthy Space Design Competition, and the Gerard K.O & Neill Space Settlement Contest. Each event tested students abilities to imagine and create solutions for humanity's future in space.

EFLU ORGANIZES EVENTS ON AI AND CLASSROOM-BASED LANGUAGE ASSESSMENT
The Department of Materials Development, Testing and Evaluation organized a webinar titled Using Artificial Intelligence in Language Assessment: Opportunities and Challenges. The keynote speaker, Prof. Antony John Kunnan, Specially Appointed Distinguished Professor at the City University of Macau, delivered an insightful talk on the integration of AI tools in language assessment. He explored the use of AI-powered platforms such as Grammarly and Duolingo, which assist teachers in providing real-time, individualized feedback to learners. Prof. Kunnan emphasized that AI tools can analyze both written and spoken language, detecting grammatical errors, vocabulary issues, and pronunciation challenges. These tools not only streamline the assessment process but also adapt to the cognitive and linguistic levels of learners, enhancing motivation and learning outcomes. He further stressed the need to equip future educators with both the skills to use these tools and an understanding of the ethical and pedagogical challenges involved.

LIC RESPONDS TO USTR OBSERVATIONS: REAFFIRMS INDEPENDENT, COMPETITIVE, & CUSTOMER-CENTRIC OPERATIONS
The LIC has taken note of the USTR's recent remarks regarding the favourable treatment extended to LIC by the Government of India. LIC wishes to clarify that LIC is treated like any other insurance company by the Government and Regulators. The guarantee—provided at the time of its establishment in 1956—is a statutory provision designed to build public confidence in the early years of nationalisation. It has never been invoked or used as a marketing tool or provided any undue advantage to LIC. For the past 25 years, LIC has operated in a fully competitive market alongside 24 private life insurance companies. It is regulated by IRDAI and SEBI and receives no special treatment from the Government or any regulatory authority. LIC's leadership in the insurance sector is entirely due to the trust of its policyholders, its commitment to service excellence, and its financial strength and transparency.
